

In North Korea People Don't Get Real Change.

American Union Members Don't Either.

————— • FACT • —————

Fewer than 10% of employees in unions* voted to join their union. In most cases, the employees who voted for the union are dead or gone.

The Employee Rights Act provides union members a guaranteed vote every three years on whether to continue paying union dues.

It's time for a new labor day.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS ACT.COM

*Private sector American unions.

Paid for by The Center for Union Facts